

This year I've added extra candles to my cake and I'll blow out each one with a wish that you'll help me celebrate by making a block or donating a buck (or both)
in support of
The 70273 Project!

Jeanne Hewell-Chambers is gathering quilt blocks from around the world (70,273 of them, to be exact) to commemorate each of the 70,273 physically and mentally disabled people who were murdered by German Nazis in 1940-41.

Thank you for helping me celebrate my birthday
in such a meaningful way!

For more information on making blocks, fabric selection, the downloadable Provenance Form, and more, see The 70273 Project Directory in the right sidebar.
To make a donation, click on the "Donate" button in the right sidebar and follow the directions or mail a check made payable to The 70273 Project, Inc. and mail to POB 994 / Cashiers, NC 28717. The 70273 Project, Inc. is a 501(c)3 organization, so donations are tax deductible.

visit www.The70273Project.org.

The base of the block is white to represent the medical records - the only information used by assessing physicians to make their evaluations.
On the base are two red X's to represent the death sentence because when two assessing physicians placed a red X on the medical record, the person's fate was sealed and they were immediately murdered.

Because each block commemorates a perfectly imperfect person, blocks can be perfectly imperfect, too.

There are only other two guidelines: ~ finished blocks must be made in one of three sizes 3.5" x 6.5" (9 cm x 16.5 cm) or 6.5" x 9.5" (16.5 cm x 24.2 cm) or 9.5" x 12.5" (24.2 cm x 31.8 cm)
~ A completed and signed Provenance Form (release) must accompany the blocks.
